| PLACE OBTAINED. PLACE OBTAINED. PLACE OBTAINED. REFERENCES. PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE). REMARKS. SOURCE 1. Between 9 a.m. and moon on 10 Septemborh 1951, there was flying at Stendal-Borstel airfield. There was the planes took off in groups of two. They made flights which lasted about 30 minutes and practiced firing at sleeve targets. 2. Between 8:35 and 11:30 a.m. on 21 September, there was the same flying activity as on 10 September. The single-engine low-whim monplanes were observed at the take-off point. No flying was observed on 22 September. In addition to the sir force unit an artillary unit of about 600 mon equipped with heavy AT guns was stationed at the field.  Document No. No Change in Class. Described Glass. Changed To: TS & Page 1 September. The stationed at the field.  Document No. No Change in Class. Described Glass. Changed To: TS & Page 1 September. The stationed at the field.  Document No. No Change in Class. Described Glass. Changed To: TS & Page 1 September. The stationed at the field.  Document No. No Change in Class. Described Glass. Changed To: TS & Page 2 ALL Box 2 A | | CLASSIFICAT Approved For Relea (ermany (Soviet Zone) | | TEPURI NU. | e consessional superior and consession and consessi |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| PLACE OBTAINED | TOPIC | CORRECT DOT 0 OCT - Part TIX | |  | 263 |
| DATE OF CONTENT— IN A DATE PREPARED 16 October 1951 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 2. Between 9 a.m. and noon on 18 September 1951, there was flying at Stendal—Borstel airfield. Twelve single-engine low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines were at the take-off point. The planes took off in groups of two. They made flights which lasted about 30 minutes and practiced firing at sleeve targets. 2. Between 8:35 and 11:30 a.m. on 21 September, there was the same flying activity as on 10 September. Ten single-engine low-wing monoplanes were observed at the take-off point. No flying was observed on 22 September. The addition to the air force unit an artillery unit of about 600 men equipped with heavy AT guns was stationed at the field.  Document No. No Change in Class. Declaration of about 600 men equipped with heavy AT guns was stationed at the field. ** | (| | | | |
| DATE OF CONTENT. (1A) DATE PREPARED 16 October 1951 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 2. Between 9 a.m. and noon on 18 September 1951, there was flying at Stendal-Borstel mirrield. Thele single-engine low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines were at the take-off point. The planes took off in groups of two. They made flights which lasted about 30 minutes and practiced firing at sleave targets. 2. Detween 8:35 and 11:30 a.m. on 21 September, there was the same flying activity as on 10 September. Ten single-engine low-wing monoplanes were observed at the take-off point. No flying was observed on 22 September. In addition to the air force unit an artillery unit of about 600 men equipped with heavy AT gune was stationed at the field. * Document No. No Change In Class. Description of the plane was a stationed at the field. * | EVALUATION X | | PLACE OBTAINED_ | | |
| REMARKS 2. Between 9 a.m. and noon on 18 September 1951, there was flying at Stendal-Borstel mirriedd. Trelve single-engine low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines were at the take-off point. The planes took off in groups of two. They made flights which lasted about 30 minutes and precticed firing at sleave targets. 2. Detween 8:35 and 11:30 a.m. on 21 September, there was the same flying activity as on 10 September. Ten single-engine low-wing monoplanes were observed at the take-off point. No flying was observed on 22 September. EXIC In addition to the air force unit an artillery unit of about 600 men equipped with heavy AT guns was stationed at the field. * Document No. Mo Change In Class. Declarated Class. Glanged To: TS S Page 13-2 | DAME OF CO | ONTENT_ | | | |
| REMARKS. SOURCE | CTA DATE OBTAI | INED. | DATE PR | EPARED 16 October 1 | .951 |
| NOTICE 1. Between 9 a.m. and noon on 18 September 1951, there was flying at Stendal-Borstel mirfield. Twelve single-engine low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines were at the take-off point. The planes took off in groups of two. They made flights which lasted about 30 minutes and practiced firing at sleeve targets. 2. Detween 8:35 and 11:30 s.m. on 21 September, there was the same flying activity as on 10 September. Ten single-engine low-wing monoplanes were observed at the take-off point. No flying was observed on 22 September. In addition to the air force unit an artillery unit of about 600 men equipped with heavy AT guns was stationed at the field. * Document No | REFERENCE | | | | |
| NATE SOURCE 1. Between 9 a.m. and noon on 18 September 1951, there was flying at Stendal-Borstel airfield. Twelve single-engine low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines were at the take-off point. The planes took off in groups of two. They made flights which lasted about 30 minutes and practiced firing at sleeve targets. 2. Between 8:35 and 11:30 a.m. on 21 September, there was the same flying activity as on 10 September. Ten single-engine low-wing monoplanes were observed at the take-off point. No flying was observed on 22 September. In addition to the air force unit an artillery unit of about 600 men equipped with heavy AT guns was stationed at the field. * Document No | PAGES | 1 ENCLOSURES | (NO. & TYPE) | | |
| Document No. Between 9 a.m. and noon on 18 September 1951, there was flying at Stendal-Borstel airfield. Twelve single-engine low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines were take-off point. The planes took off in groups of two. They made flights which lasted about 30 minutes and precticed firing at sleeve targets. 2. Between 8:35 and 11:30 a.m. on 21 September, there was the same flying activity as on 10 September. Ten single-engine low-wing monoplanes were observed at the take-off point. No flying was observed on 22 September. In addition to the air force unit an artillery unit of about 600 men equipped with heavy AT guns was stationed at the field. * | DEMVERS | | | | |
| 1. Between 9 a.m. and noon on 18 September 1951, there was flying at Stendal-Borstel airfield. Twelve single-engine low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines were at the take-off point. The planes took off in groups of two. They made flights which lasted about 30 minutes and practiced firing at sleeve targets. 2. Between 8:35 and 11:30 a.m. on 21 September, there was the same flying activity as on 10 September. Ten single-engine low-wing monoplanes were observed at the take-off point. No flying was observed on 22 September. In addition to the air force unit an artillery unit of about 000 men equipped with heavy AT guns was stationed at the field. * Document No. No Change in Class. Declaration of the field. * | Manny grido 200 | Statistics which is a service of the service o | | | |
| Between 9 a.m. and noon on 18 September 1951, there was flying at Stendal-Borstel ainfield. Twelve single-engine low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines were at the take-off point. The planes took off in groups of two. They made flights which lasted about 30 minutes and practiced firing at sleeve targets. 2. Between 8:35 and 11:30 a.m. on 21 September, there was the same flying activity as on 18 September. Ten single-engine low-wing monoplanes were observed at the take-off point. No flying was observed on 22 September. In addition to the air force unit an artillery unit of about 000 men equipped with heavy AT guns was stationed at the field. * Document No. No Change in Class. Declaration of the same flying activity as on 18 September. The same flying activity as on 18 September. The single-engine low-wing monoplanes were observed at the take-off point. No flying was observed on 22 September. In addition to the air force unit an artillery unit of about 000 men equipped with heavy AT guns was stationed at the field. * | A DESIGN OF THE CONTROL OF | ne estant (1904). Esta la primita de la prim | AND THE REAL PROPERTY OF PROPERTY OF THE PROPE | | |
| Between 9 a.m. and noon on 18 September 1951, there was flying at Stendal-Borstel airfield. Twelve single-engine low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines were at the take-off point. The planes took off in groups of two. They made flights which lasted about 30 minutes and practiced firing at sleeve targets. 2. Between 8:35 and 11:30 a.m. on 21 September, there was the same flying activity as on 18 September. Ten single-engine low-wing monoplanes were observed at the take-off point. No flying was observed on 22 September. In addition to the air force unit an artillery unit of about 600 men equipped with heavy AT guns was stationed at the field. * Document No. No Change in Class. Delacation of the specified Class. Fienged To: TS & Company of the specified Class. Fienged To: TS & Company of the specified Class. Fienged To: TS & Company of the specified Class. Fienged To: TS & Company of the specified Class. Fienged To: TS & Company of the specified Class. Fienged To: TS & Company of the specified Class. Fienged To: TS & Company of the specified Class. Fienged To: TS & Company of the specified Class. Fienged To: TS & Company of the specified Class. Fienged To: TS & Company of the specified Class. Fienged To: TS & Company of the specified Class. Fienged To: TS & Company of the specified Class. Fienged To: TS & Company of the specified Class. Fienged To: TS & Company of the specified Class. Fienged To: TS & Company of the specified Class. | | to complete and the state of th | erion i a recent e quali de adopte la investigación de la contra gualen gualente des alguns des multividades m | | |
| Between 9 a.m. and noon on 18 September 1951, there was flying at Stendal-Borstel airfield. Twelve single-engine low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines were at the take-off point. The planes took off in groups of two. They made flights which lasted about 30 minutes and practiced firing at sleeve targets. 2. Between 8:35 and 11:30 a.m. on 21 September, there was the same flying activity as on 18 September. Ten single-engine low-wing monoplanes were observed at the take-off point. No flying was observed on 22 September. In addition to the air force unit an artillery unit of about 600 men equipped with heavy AT guns was stationed at the field. * Document No. No Change in Class. Declaration of the same flying activity as on 18 September. The same flying activity as on 18 September. The single-engine low-wing monoplanes were observed at the take-off point. No flying was observed on 22 September. In addition to the air force unit an artillery unit of about 600 men equipped with heavy AT guns was stationed at the field. * | X1X | C Trescostrical relativistic works beginned to the comparison of the contraction of the comparison of | | | |
| Between 9 a.m. and noon on 18 September 1951, there was flying at Stendal-Borstel airfield. Twelve single-engine low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines were at the take-off point. The planes took off in groups of two. They made flights which lasted about 30 minutes and practiced firing at sleeve targets. 2. Between 8:35 and 11:30 a.m. on 21 September, there was the same flying activity as on 18 September. Ten single-engine low-wing monoplanes were observed at the take-off point. No flying was observed on 22 September. 5X1C In addition to the air force unit an artillery unit of about 600 men equipped with heavy AT guns was stationed at the field. * Document No. No Change in Class. Declaration of the field. * | | | | | |
| vity as on 18 September. Ten single-engine low-wing monoplanes were observed at the take-off point. No flying was observed on 22 September. In addition to the air force unit an artillery unit of about 600 men equipped with heavy AT guns was stationed at the field. * Document No | | Borstel airfield. Two | elve single-engine l ske-off point. The | ow-wing monopianes w planes took off in () | roups of two. |
| Document No. No Change In Class. Declassified Class. Classed To: TS S | | | | | |
| Document No. No Change In Class. Declassified Class. Classed To: TS S | 2. 5X1C X1C | Sheeve targets. Between 8:35 and 11:30 vity as on 18 Septembe at the take-off point. In addition to the air | a.m. on 21 September. Ten single-engi No flying was obs | er, there was the same low-wing monoplanderved on 22 September llery unit of about | me flying acti- es were observed r. |
| No Change In Class. Declassified Class. Classed To: TS S P | 2. 5X1C X1C | Sheeve targets. Between 8:35 and 11:30 vity as on 18 Septembe at the take-off point. In addition to the air | a.m. on 21 September. Ten single-engi No flying was obs | er, there was the same low-wing monoplanderved on 22 September llery unit of about | me flying acti- es were observed r. |
| The designation of the second | 2. 5X1C X1C | Sheeve targets. Between 8:35 and 11:30 vity as on 18 Septembe at the take-off point. In addition to the air | a.m. on 21 September. Ten single-engi No flying was obs | er, there was the same low-wing monoplanderved on 22 September llery unit of about | me flying acti- es were observed r. |